Word Challenge:

1. Write down all the swear words and phrases you know and categorize them into highly offensive, fairly offensive, and mildly offensive. Then write what they mean.

Highly Offensive:	Meaning:
Fairly Offensive:	Meaning:
Mildly Offensive:	Meaning:

2. Have you ever had these words used towards you or have you used the words yourself? If you answered yes explain the situation(s), in which this has occurred.

3. Is using these words treating people with respect?

4. How have you felt when swear words have been used towards you? Explain why you felt that way.

5. Are there some swear words that should never be used whatever the circumstances? What are those words and why?

Being Creative

6. Think of occasions when you swore and find alternative comments to make—use your imagination and a Thesaurus or dictionary to help you.

Swear Word	Alternative

7. Describe the situations with their corresponding comments or perform the situations as role-plays with a parent/guardian.

8. Choose one of the following activities, complete, and turn into Ms. Finckler.
- Make up a poster illustrating the consequences of swearing or reasons why it would be good to quit swearing.
 - Write a poem or rap about swearing.
 - Produce sponsor forms for you and your friends to raise money for a charity (or a school trip) by not swearing for a week and/or by having a swearing box at home (parents have to pay more than you do!).
